316.
COUNTY COURT REFUGIO COUNTY FOR THE SETTLEMENT OF DECEASED PERSONS, MINORS AND LUNATICS ESTATES & C OCTOBER TERM 1865 A.D.

In the name of God amen:

I, Benjamin Adams of the County of Refugio State of Texas being of infirm health but sound mind, and knowing the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament to-wit: I will and bequeath unto my friends William S. Beebe and Solon Lindsley of the aforesaid County and State the tract of land upon which I now reside together with the dwelling house, field and all other improvements and appurtenances thereto belonging also the household and kitchen furniture, bedding and the crop of corn and potatoes both gathered and ungathered also all my horses excepting only the best one which shall be sold and the proceeds appropriated towards the payment of my debts. After the payment of my just debts, funeral expenses and just compensation to Mr. Beebe for his attention to me during my sickness I desire that the residue and remainder of my property of whatever kind shall be equally divided between Thomas M. Duke senior and John R. Baker both my friends and neighbors and of the County aforesaid and I hereby appoint the said Thomas M. Duke and William S. Beebe execu
